

Terms and Conditions for Participation in Activities Hosted by Ethiopian Coffee Origin Trip (ECOT)

1. Voluntary Participation and Assumption of Risk

Participation in activities hosted by The Company is entirely voluntary.

Participants acknowledge and accept all risks associated with the planned activities, including but not limited to travel to and from the activity (including air travel) and any events incidental to the activity.

2. Liability Waiver

Participants agree to hold The Company harmless from any claims, losses, damages to personal property, liabilities, or costs arising from their participation in the activities.

This waiver of liability extends to managers, independent contractors, associates, and affiliates of The Company.

3. Nature of Activities

Activities may involve physical exertion such as walking or hiking around coffee crops, exposure to heavy machinery, and the presence of wild animals.

Participants accept the inherent risks of travel by car, including normal risks associated with travel and exploration.

4. Participant Responsibilities

Participants agree to exercise caution to ensure their safety and the safety of those around them. This includes but is not limited to:

- Avoiding walking in public areas with valuables that may increase the risk of theft
- Wearing a seatbelt at all times while traveling by car

5. Insurance and Medical Facilities

While Ethiopia offers accessible medical services at fair prices, The Company does not provide any form of insurance coverage.

Participants are strongly encouraged to obtain their own travel and international medical insurance prior to participating in the activities.

6. Acknowledgment of Risks and Release of Liability

By participating in activities hosted by The Company, participants acknowledge the reasonable risks involved, including but not limited to personal injury, property loss, or other incidents.

Participants agree to release The Company, its managers, contractors, and associates from all liability, waive the right to sue, and assume all risks associated with their participation.

Final Acknowledgment

By participating in the activities, participants confirm their understanding and acceptance of these terms and conditions.
